

WRIT OF PROHIBITION

AGAINST PROBATE JUDGE MARCO CASTILLO, MICHAEL KOURY AND PATROCINIO LOPEZ GRANTED BY ASSOCIATE JUSTICE BAKER IN KOURY ESTATE CASE.

(From Wednesday's Daily Citizen.) In the case of Mrs. Koury, Koury, administrator of the estate of her late husband, John Koury, in which a petition was filed Friday last by Michael Koury, brother of the deceased, alleging that Mrs. Koury never was the legal wife of his brother, and in which Patrocínio Lopez was appointed "superintendent of the estate" without bond, a writ of prohibition directed against Probate Judge Marcos Castillo, of Santa Fe county, and which names Michael Koury and Patrocínio Lopez, "superintendent of the estate," was granted by Associate Justice Benjamin S. Baker at Albuquerque. In the absence of Associate Justice John R. McFie, of Santa Fe; this upon petition of the administrator through her Attorney R. H. Hagg and Judge N. B. Landrum, who represented to the court that action was had in the case by the probate judge without notice to the administrator or her attorney, that Patrocínio Lopez had been appointed "superintendent of the estate," as an official position absolutely unknown to the New Mexico statutes or in New Mexico jurisprudence; that the said "superintendent of estate" had demanded the key to the store in which the goods and chattels of the estate were kept, from the administrator, under the authority of the probate judge; that upon accidentally finding out what was going on, Attorney Hagg and Landrum appeared before the probate court, when it was agreed that the hearing in the case would be postponed until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock before the probate judge; that after leaving the court room, after making the agreement, the order appointing Patrocínio Lopez "superintendent of estate" was made without notice to the administrator or her attorney and that the order was served on her the same evening.

Associate Justice Baker upon these points and other legal matters set forth in the petition for the writ granted the same and the matter will come up at the session of the supreme court on January 3 next. In the meantime, Mrs. Koury has given bonds in the sum of $10,000, for the faithful performance of her duties as administrator and will administer the same under the letter of administration.

The case has attracted wide-spread attention in the city and there is much comment on it.

A. B. Benham, Attorney General, is the attorney for Michael Koury, upon whose petition the action of the probate judge is based and H. H. Hagg and N. B. Landrum are the attorneys for Mrs. Koury.

MESSINGER ROBERTS' DYING WORDS.

It is O. Roberts, the Wells Fargo Express messenger who was shot on Sunday night on train No. 1 and after wards died, said before he died that some one, whom he thought must be a trainman, knocked on the door of the express car just as the train was leaving Ludlow, Cal. He opened the door and as he did so, a white man struck him on the head with a pistol, knocking him down. The trainman then entered the car and the man entered the car. Roberts said that he was dazed and didn't know just what he was doing and as he attempted to rise, the robber shot him in the back. The man took the keys of the local safe from his pocket and opened the safe, rifled it. The robber left the car on an up grade east of Daguerre, where Roberts was found lying on his back wounded. The messenger had attempted to stop the train by pulling the bell cord but was too weak to reach it. As bloody marks on the car floor. Pools of blood on the floor of the car also show that he was very weak and had to stop and rest several times in crossing the car to reach his cot. Roberts died in Los Angeles at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

MEDALS FOR HEROES OF BLOOM DISASTER.
New York, Dec. 7.—The Second Infantry, in the Bronx, will be the scene of impressive ceremonies to night when the medals given by the United States Volunteer Life Saving association will be distributed to those who aided in the work of rescue at the time of the General Bloom disaster, in which more than 1,000 persons perished. Mayor McEllen will preside at the meeting and will present the silver and bronze medals and certificates of honor. Nearly 300 names are included in the list of those who, leaving all thought of self behind, plunged into the water off North Brother Island on June 14 last to rescue struggling women and children who had jumped from the decks of the burning steamer.

Those who are to receive rewards have been divided into three classes. The first class receives the silver medals, the highest award of the life saving corps; the second class, bronze medals, and the third class, certificates of honor. At the head of the first class are three girls. The first, Mary McGinn, who was a convalescent on North Brother Island, waded out and dragged ashore six boys and girls. Miss Lou McKibbin, telephone operator on North Brother Island, stands No. 2. With rare presence of mind she summoned the fire department and notified all the hospitals. The third is Miss Pauline Potts, who also was a convalescent. She saved five children, included among those to receive certificates of honor are twelve members of the police department.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S.
Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Quality of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 14, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a Godsend remedy. Respectfully Yours, E. A. LANGFELDT, M. A.

Rector of St. Luke's Church. To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This medicine is for sale by all druggists.

FOOT BALL STUNTS

THE A. A. BOYS ARE PRACTICING FOR SUNDAY'S GAME.

Tony Ortiz will play guard in Sunday's game at Athletic park and Tony will knock a hole in El Paso's line big enough to let an ox through. Tony learned the game a few years back, when the A. A. M. bunch met defeat on the local gridiron to the tune of 30 to 0. Wagoner will play the other guard and there may be one or two other changes in the team, otherwise the team that will go against El Paso will be the same which defeated the "farmers."

Eleven of the boys were out in practice last night in the street near the gym, and the evening previous they took signal practice indoors at the gym. Coach Montgomery gave them two new machine maneuvers last night and there are likely to be some surprises on Sunday. It is understood that El Paso has loaded up for the battle and are coming with a number of professionals among them, but the Albuquerque bunch is not at all worried. "If El Paso wins, it will be over our prostrate bodies," was the sentiment expressed by the boys out to practice last night.

Shooting at Quay.
News reached this city of a shooting, Sunday, near Quay postoffice about twenty miles from here in which Frank Dulany was shot by Cade Adams.

It appears that Dulany who had been working for Adams was discharged and as a result some acridly worded correspondence between the two. Several days later Adams went there for some reason and was attacked by Dulany and struck on the head with a shot gun when Mr. Adams drew his revolver and shot the former in the side. Dr. Moore was summoned and dressed the wounds and reports that although the wound is very serious, he thinks it will not cause death.—Tucuman Democrat.

Heavy Snow at Las Vegas.
The heavy fall of snow, estimated between ten or eleven inches in depth on the level, has played havoc with the flat roofs about town, the shovellers having been kept busy at work thereon for a couple of days.—Optic.

THEY NEVER FAIL.

That is What They Say About Them in Albuquerque, and it is, Therefore, Reliable.

Another proof, some more evidence, Albuquerque testimony to swell the long list of advocates who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of the claims made for that remarkable preparation:

Mrs. J. Hall, of 519 South First street, says: "One of my daughters suffered from backache for about eight months or a year. Sometimes it was so bad that she was completely prostrated for a day or so at a time. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our Albuquerque newspaper and thought if they only performed half what they promised they might help my daughter and we went to the
